CARROLLTON-CARROLL COUNTY

2021 Political Directory

This publication was funded by the League of Women Voters of Carrollton-Carroll County (LWVCCC) and the Carroll County Chamber of Commerce (CCCC). This directory may be freely copied and distributed for public and educational purposes. If possible, please give credit to the above named organizations. This brochure is edited by the LWVCCC for the general use of the public and is not intended for official or professional use. Please verify information as needed. To report errors or corrections or to be sent a PDF file of this brochure, email lwvccc@gmail.com

The purpose of the League of Women Voters of Carrollton-Carroll County is to promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government and to act on selected governmental issues. The LWVCC does not support or oppose any political party or candidate. It is a non-partisan, issue-driven organization and part of the League of Women Voters of Georgia and the national League of Women Voters. For more information, contact the LWVCCC at lwvccc@gmail.com. Like and follow on Facebook: League of Women Voters of Carrollton Carroll County.

The Carroll County Chamber of Commerce Mission Statement is "Building a Stronger Business Community by Engaging Progressive Leadership and Diverse Resources". The CCCC is a non-profit organization working for business, community and economic development through the investment and involvement of its members. For more information or to join, contact them at carrollchamber@carroll-ga.org, on their website (www.carroll-ga.org), or call 770-832-2446. They are located at 200 Northside Drive, Carrollton, GA 30117. Facebook: Carroll County Chamber of Commerce.

The Thomas B. Murphy Center for Public Service is a non-partisan, educational and public service organization at the University of West Georgia College of Social Sciences Department of Political Science. It promotes student and citizen involvement in the community and government. It also supports civic education by sponsoring a broad range of events that encourage public awareness and participation in the governing process in keeping with the ideals of former Speaker of the Georgia House of Representatives Thomas B. Murphy. You may visit the Thomas B. Murphy Exhibit at UWG's Ingram Library (lower level) or contact Dr. Karen Owen, Director at kowen@westga.edu. For more information go to <https://www.westga.edu/academics/coss/political-science/murphy-center.php>

For Additional Voting Information: Use the League of Women Voters VOTE411 at <http://www.vote411.org> for accurate and unbiased voting information. Enter your address to find your polling place, view upcoming election races in your area, compare candidates' positions side-by-side, and print out a sample "ballot" indicating your preferences as a reminder to take with you to the polls on Election Day. Check out the resources for military and overseas voters, too.

Other valuable resources include Ballotpedia, a non-profit digital encyclopedia of American politics and elections at <https://www.georgiaencyclopedia.org>

For more STATE information about voting and elections in Georgia, go to the Georgia Secretary of State website at www.sos.ga.gov and choose Elections. For more LOCAL information, go to the Carroll County Elections and Registration website at <https://www.carrollcountyga.com/323/Elections-Voter-Registration>. From that website you will be able to access Carroll County District Maps, request an Absentee by Mail Ballot, see a list of county Voting Precincts and get directions, check a Provisional Ballot Status, see a Sample Ballot and access other useful information. This office is located on the lower level of 423 College Street, Room 302, Carrollton, GA. Phone: 770-830-5824. Email: elections@carrollcountyga.com.

Georgia VoteSafe Program. State law requires the public availability of voter lists, including names and addresses of registered voters. In 2009, the Georgia Legislature enacted a bill known as the VoteSafe program to provide for the confidentiality of residence addresses of certain registered voters who have been, or may be subject to acts of family violence or stalking or currently reside in a family violence shelter. For more information go to: www.sos.ga.gov/votesafe.

On-Line Voter Registration. Use the State of Georgia's Online Voter Registration System at <https://registertovote.sos.ga.gov> to register to vote, make changes to your current registration record, check if you are registered to vote, find out your polling place and directions and other information about state elected officials.

VOTER IDs. Bring one of these six forms of identification to vote at the polls:

* Any valid state or federal government-issued photo ID [including a free ID Card issued by your county registrar's office or the Georgia Department of Driver Services (DDS)]. If you do not have such an ID, or one of the other starred items here, you can receive a state-issued photo ID (free of charge) from your county registrar's office or the Georgia Department of Driver Services (DDS) by providing :

- A photo identity document or approved non-photo identity document that includes full legal name and date of birth.
- Documentation showing the voter's date of birth.
- Evidence that the applicant is a registered voter.
- Documentation showing the applicant's name and residential address.

- * A Georgia Driver's License, even if expired.
- * Valid employee photo ID from any branch, department, agency, or entity of the U.S. Government, Georgia, or any county municipality, board, authority or other entity of this state.
- * Valid U.S. passport ID.
- * Valid U.S. military photo ID.
- * Valid tribal photo ID.
